"Prepare for war! Wake up the mighty men,
Let the men of war draw near, Let them come up.
Beat your plowshares into swords,
And your pruning hooks into spears:
Let the weak say, I am strong"

HOUSE ON THE ROCK
home for all

Dearlly Beloved,

I greet you all in the name of our Lord.

The season of Lent affords Christians the world over, the opportunity to engage in prayer and fasting, corporately as it were. We all recall that following the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord Jesus the Christ, God entered a new binding and irrevocable covenant with His people (the New Creation species) ratified through the precious blood of His Son, Jesus Christ. The reality of this binding and irrevocable covenant is what unites Christians, regardless of geographical location.

At the House on The Rock we cannot overemphasize the importance of prayer. We acknowledge that God is the creator of the person and the creator of the potential inside each of us. Indeed, it will be presumptuous of anyone to expect to become all that God has created them to be without prayer. God's purpose for our lives can only be revealed through dialogue with our creator and it is this knowledge of our purpose that reveals our potential. It is in the course of communion with God (prayer) that we will receive instructions to enable us exploit and express the dormant, latent power (hidden wealth) in us, which is our potential

Scripture records that when the disciples asked Jesus to teach them how to pray, He provided them with a template for prayer which we all know as "The Lord's prayer". During this time of corporate consecration through prayer and fasting, I direct your focus to this prayer:

Our Father, which art in Heaven
Hallowed be thy Name
May thy kingdom come,
May thy will be done on earth
As it is in Heaven
Give us this day our daily Bread
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those that trespass against us
And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from all Evil
For thine is the Kingdom, the Power and Glory, Forever.
Amen

It is from this perspective that I pray for everyone under the cover of this house, declaring that the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ shall release the grace of prayer upon you. I pray that you may have strength to pray and attain consistent victory in prayer which will ultimately result in sustained victory in life, knowing that He who called you is faithful and will perfect all that which concerns you. Amen.

Yours for the establishment of His Kingdom,

Paul Adefarasin

Metropolitan of All House On The Rock.

WEEK ONE

PERSONAL / INDIVIDUAL

DAY 1 - THANKSGIVING

1. Gratitude for Sustaining Mercy

Father, I thank You for sustaining me through seasons of uncertainty, private battles, silent disappointments, and questions I did not have answers to. You preserved my life, guarded my mind, and kept my faith from collapsing.

“Through the Lord’s mercies we are not consumed, Because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning; Great is Your faithfulness.” – Lamentations
3:22-23 (NKJV)

“Bless the Lord, O my soul; And all that is within me, bless His holy name! Bless the Lord, O my soul, And forget not all His benefits.” – Psalm 103:1-2 (NKJV)

2. Thanksgiving for Redemption and Assured Peace

Lord Jesus, I thank You for the certainty of salvation, for the finished work of the Cross, and for peace with God that does not fluctuate with my performance. I thank You that justification is settled and reconciliation is secure.

“For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast.” – Ephesians 2:8-9 (NKJV)

“Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.” – Romans 5:1
(NKJV)

3. Gratitude for Growth Through Pressure and What Is Ahead

I thank You for using pressure to mature me, for allowing trials that stretched my understanding and deepened my dependence on You. I thank You in advance for clarity, alignment, and progress in 2026. You are already present in the future that is coming.

“My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience.” – James 1:2-3 (NKJV)

“Being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ.” – Philippians 1:6 (NKJV)

Personal Reflection

Have I allowed the pressures of life or familiarity with God to silence gratitude in my life?

Today, I intentionally recount God’s benefits in my life. Thankful that I have been preserved by His mercy, not by my strength.

Declaration

I declare that gratitude is my lifestyle. I will be thankful in all things. My past is redeemed, my present is sustained, and my future is secured in Christ. In Jesus Name, Amen!

“For the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.”– Romans 14:17 (NKJV)

4. Stability in Christ-Centered Truth

Ground me in Christ-centered doctrine. Guard my heart from confusion, cultural pressure, spiritual trends, and distorted interpretations that subtly shift focus away from You.

“As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.”

– Colossians 2:6-7 (NKJV)

“That we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting.”– Ephesians 4:14 (NKJV)

Personal Reflection

Am I truly seeking God, or merely seeking His blessings? I desire to know Him more, not just play religion and familiarity with God.

2. Governed from Within, Not by the Senses

Lord, teach me to be governed from within, by Your indwelling life, not by impulse, fear, public opinion, or my senses but by faith. Anchor my decisions in spiritual discernment, and order my thoughts.

“For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.”— Romans 8:14 (NKJV)
